

Courageous Kids Volunteer List 2016/2017

Edith Baumgart

Edith is Associate Director of Children and Family Services at Willamette Family and an active member of the CK advisory board since 2014.

Tiffany Brown

Tiffany has a Ph.D. In Couples and Family Therapy and teaches at the University of Oregon as a Senior Lecturer and Clinical Director in Couples and Family Therapy. She has been associated with Courageous Kids off and on since 2001 in various capacities.

Fran Calciano, M.S.

Fran has an M.S. in counseling psychology and is a retired teacher and school counselor after thirty-four years of service in the Eugene area. She has been a board member since 2013. Fran coordinates CK grief support groups within the schools and uses the program as a referral source for appropriate students and families.

Kirsten Frazer, M.S.

Kristen has been a Courageous Kids volunteer since 1997 and board member since 2000. Currently CK Summer Camp Co-Director, she enjoys helping to organize, educate, and lead staff each summer.

Carolyn Knox, Ph.D.

Carolyn is a retired faculty member from the University of Oregon. She is a volunteer at PeaceHealth Hospice, she facilitates Eugene Death Cafe meetings, and she manages the website for Courageous Kids.

Maria Kurtenbach

Maria's educational background is in child development and psychology. Through personal and professional experience, she knows how much programs such as CK help participants during life's challenges. Maria is committed to helping CK serve grieving families for many years to come.

Beth I. Robinson, M.S.

Beth is an artist, mediator, and facilitator in private practice. Her focus is grief and conflict dispute resolution within families, workplace, and community settings. See her work at robin.press.com.

Matt McCallum

Matt is a passionate music enthusiast and works his dream job as a sales clerk at Eugene's House of Records. He holds a degree in Counseling, Family & Human Services from the University of Oregon. He has served on the board of directors for the Global War on Terror Memorial Foundation and has been volunteering with Courageous Kids since 2015.

