

Parent Quotes about Camp

“Thank you so much for making Courageous Kids possible. After my son’s death, my daughter and I were so lost. Words are not enough to express my gratitude for how much my daughter has benefitted from the camp and groups. Her first experience was going to Sky Camp. We are now completing our second group and looking forward to camp and more groups. We have been so blessed by your generosity. (Parent of 7 yr old)

“I never thought playing in sand would bring me to my knees but it did.”(Parent of elementary school child)

“[There were] lots of various activities that allowed us to show our grief in more than just words.” (Parent of elementary school child)

“Expressing herself through art helped a lot for her. She likes doing those kinds of projects and it was good to use emotions as the focus of the project. The communication between us improved, she is more comfortable talking about the death.” (Parent of elementary school child)

“...She connected with others about loss and that is important. She could talk to somebody. (Parent)

“He felt comfortable and was able to be himself which is ideal. I wouldn’t change anything for my child. You have made a big difference in our lives. THANK YOU!” (Parent of elementary school child)

“Thank you for this experience. My twin 6 year old girls and I appreciate the opportunity very much. It has been such an important time in their lives since the sudden loss of their dad when they were only 4. Making friends with other children their age that have had a similar loss has made them feel “normal”. We LOVE this program and the staff! Thank you!!”
